

The Steamship Edit

What's New

Paul Brewer on
When the Anchor drops too far

New Podcast: When the Anchor drops too far

This episode centres on Jesse Henson, a worker at a coal-fired power plant in Kansas, who tragically lost his life due to a failed pressure relief valve. Jesse's widow, Kelli Most, pursued claims against Team Industrial Services and Westar Energy, initially resulting in a $222 million award.

We are joined today by Paul Brewer, Paul is the Claims Director of Steamship Mutual.

Listen now

Demurrage Time Bars - FAQs

Read more

MOA - is loss bargain recoverable?

Read more

Risk Alert: Resumption of Iron ore export from Goa, India

Read more

Tokyo and Paris MOU Joint Concentrated Inspection Campaign 2024

Read more

Risk Alert: Mpox - Guidance for Shipboard Operations

Read more

Red Sea - Gulf of Aden - Security Updates

Read more

Club News

Volunteering at Mudchute Park and Farm

Our London team had an amazing time volunteering at Mudchute Park and Farm for our first Local Community Day! We rolled up our sleeves and got hands-on with meaningful work, from gardening to animal care.

Watch now

Steamship Mutual & Oil Spill India 2024

Sue Watkins spoke at Oil Spill India with Daisy Roche from the IG Secretariat and IOPC Funds, highlighting the International Group of P&I Clubs' role in the IMO liability and compensation regime.

Read more

OSCAR Dragon Boat Race Completed!

Huge thanks to everyone who has sponsored the Steamship Mutual team and their various events and challenges in the lead up.

Steamship's current total is £5,463.

Read more